WORTHY PROJECTS 2022 By Maureen and Jacques Lebel

As per previous years, $500 from the Hiltonia Association's annual budget was set aside to support its Worthy Projects initiative. This year, the membership chose The Trenton Literacy Movement, INC. and the Locust Hill African Cemetery and Museum Project as recipients. See descriptions below.

Annually the Association has offered to match individual contributions from neighbors of up to $250 per project. Last year, our generous neighbors far exceeded the match amount in awarding Trenton Animals Rock a combined total of $1,170.00 and Trent House a combined total of $630.00.

Residents of Hiltonia who would like to participate this year should make out separate check(s) payable to The Trenton Literacy Movement or the 6th Regiment US Colored Troops--Locust Hill Project or both. Checks should be delivered to Jeannie Weakliem, at 12 Hilvista Blvd. as soon as possible, but no later than December 31, 2022.

The mission of the Trenton Literacy Movement (TTLM), a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization, is to enable students in Trenton public elementary schools to read at grade level by 3rd grade. Since TTML was founded in 2016, fifty-seven percent of students who started below grade level caught up to or exceeded grade level in reading. TTML after-school literacy programs are in all 14 Trenton public elementary schools.

The Locust Hill African Cemetery and Museum Project is sponsored by the 6th Regiment United States Colored Troops, a nonprofit organization engaged in the restoration of the Locust Hill Cemetery and establishing a museum to honor and preserve the black lives laid to rest there.

The story of the cemetery dating back to 1779 is presented in detail on the Locust Hill African Cemetery and Museum website: https://locusthillafricancemetery-museum.com/?doing\_wp\_cron=1668220152.6354410648345947265625

In Memoriam By Margaret Mason

As the Hiltonia Association prepares for its 2023 slate of officers, we want to note the contributions made by our corresponding secretary and long-time neighbor and city activist, Bea Scala-Fischler, who passed away earlier this year.

Small in stature, but enormous in strength and conviction, Bea was probably one of the first people most of us knew by name when we moved into the neighborhood. Well-versed on the issues, she spoke her mind fearlessly. She held various offices in the association over the years, the most recent, corresponding secretary. If there was something going on in the neighborhood she was there. Even as her health deteriorated, she continued to attend meetings and social events, her husband, Michael Fischler, always at her side helping (when she'd allow him).

She has been described by people who knew her as "a force of nature," and if you knew Bea, you know that moniker was spot on. She is deeply missed by us all.

The "Hiltonia Mission Statement"

1. Protect and promote the welfare and character of the Association area.
2. Advance civic and social interest.
3. Function on non-sectarian, non-political, and non-racial principles.
4. Provide support for worthwhile charitable, civic, and cultural projects within the City of Trenton.

The Association is open to all who reside in Hiltonia.

Co-Presidents' Message By Linda Reid and Jeannie Weakliem

Dear Hiltonia Neighbors,

Can you believe that 2022 is almost gone? (Where does the time go?) While I think we can all agree that 2022 wasn't quite as trying as 2020 and 2021, hopefully we will have a more "normal" 2023.

"Crazy time," also known as the municipal election, has come and gone, and while the campaigning was almost non-existent, the Mercer County vote counting issues certainly took over in terms of drama.

Mayor Reed Gusciora was easily reelected for a second term as Mayor. Here, in Hiltonia, we will be represented by Teska Frisby as our West Ward councilperson for a 2-year term, and Yazminelly Gonzalez, Jasi Edwards, and Crystal Feliciano as our At-Large councilpersons, for 4 year terms. This change was made so that this will be the last time almost all (6 of 7) councilpersons will be newly elected.

Joe Harrison will represent the East Ward, and the North and South Wards will have a run-off election on December 13th.

The new year will be a busy one for the Hiltonia Association and the City of Trenton. We will have new officers lead us into what I hope will be a productive year for the Hiltonia Association, and the City, too.

In addition to our usual events we are hoping to sponsor a "Porchfest" and a "T-shirt fundraiser." We are also adding a children's Little Free Library alongside the original Little Free Library located at 123 Renfrew Ave.

So please, re-read the Hiltonia Association mission statement (page 1), and renew or join as a new member. The 2023 membership form is on the last page of this Hilltone. And maybe you might like to help out by becoming a member of one of our many committees to help us provide for all of Hiltonia and the City of Trenton's needs. Please, just let us know. Or, if you have an idea for a new committee or event, we are always willing to entertain new ideas.

As we end the year, I hope you all enjoy celebrating the Hanukkah, Christmas, and Kwanzaa holidays.

Holiday Happenings in Trenton By Pat Rodeawald

Our immediate area offers many opportunities to celebrate the holiday season. Passage Theatre is once again presenting its two-person version of A Christmas Carol. The production sold out both live and virtual performances last year, so the show will now run for three days, from December 9 through the 11. Hopefully you'll be able to take in this fast-paced, funny and warm version of the holiday classic.

For the first time, The Trenton City Museum at Ellarslie offered an opportunity to display a wreath of your own creation. Wreaths were brought to Ellarslie for display at the museum. There is also a children's weather-making workshop on Sunday, December 11. Check out the Ellarslie website for more information.

If you'd rather buy a wreath, the Trent House has brought back their annual wreath sale the first weekend of December.

The first weekend of December is filled with events. In addition to the Trent House wreath sale, Mill Hill hosts its popular Holiday House Tour on Saturday, December 3. When you're done touring the beautifully decorated homes, head over to Ellarslie between 5 – 8 PM for the opening of "Curated by Trenton," which features works by over 20 artists from Trenton's talented creative community.

And of course, there's Patriots Week, the weeklong examination of the pivotal battle that changed the direction of America's fight for freedom.

The holidays are a great time to take advantage of art and history so close to home!

New Running and Walking Trail Planned at Cadwalader Park

By Jordan Antebi, area runner and volunteer, and Becky Taylor, chair of the Hiltonia Association's Park Projects Committee

A cross country running and walking trail is under development at Cadwalader Park, the City of Trenton's "emerald jewel," as the result of an effort involving the city's Recreation Department, the Trenton Central High School cross country program, and local running, outdoor, education, and civic communities.

The cross country trail will be one of Mercer County's few non-asphalt distance running trails and will provide runners, walkers, nature observers, and other users a safe, soft surface to exercise and enjoy the outdoors. Design and development have already begun and are expected to finish by next summer.

The trail will be roughly eight feet wide over mowed grass and packed cinders. It is a looped circuit that can accommodate a 4k (2.4 mile) or 5k (3.2 mile) walk or run along the Stuyvesant Avenue and Cadwalader Drive section of the park.

The route was planned by Damian Kellogg, Trenton Central High School head cross country coach and biology teacher, and Jordan Antebi, local runner and volunteer, with approval from the Trenton Recreation Department.

Since 2019, efforts have been underway to renew and expand the park's cross country programs, which date back a century. Efforts include the trail, as well as piloting a middle school cross country feeder program. Completing the trail will also support a return of high school races to the park after a 25-year hiatus.

To help complete the trail, Luis Pedemonte, a senior engineer with the recreation office, volunteers and city work crews have been marking, filling, and reseeding divots. Until now, these have been a safety problem for runners and other park users. There are plans to mark the trail, but details of that are to be determined.

Driving this project is a Cadwalader Park working group with city government support that is focusing on restoring the park in three key areas: maintenance, access, and programming. As efforts around the park continue to develop, more announcements will be posted about the working group, other programs, and future opportunities to help support the park.

Membership Update

Welcome to our newest residents! We are excited that you have decided to make Hiltonia your home. You will find that your choice of Hiltonia is an excellent decision as we are a very close community which is active civically and socially.

Our 2023 membership drive is now beginning. Annual dues have not changed, and we hope to soon be flooded with renewals and new member signups. Annual dues fund social events for adults and children, publication of The Hilltone, and matching Worthy Projects donations. Beyond those aspects, however, active membership ensures the longevity of the Association and continues to strengthen connections among Hiltonians, and with the city itself.

To join the Hiltonia Association for 2023, please complete the form included in this newsletter (see page 9) and submit it with your payment: $15.00 per person or $30.00 per family (this includes two spouses and two adult children) per year. Mail or drop it off to our treasurer, June Guerrero, at 201 Buckingham Ave. Current residents, please renew your Hiltonia Association membership! And while you are at it, take a look at the various committees we have. There might be one that is best suited to your unique skillsets! We certainly could utilize your talents!

January 8th: Sunday, Hiltonia Executive Committee Meeting at 3:00 PM;
Location TBA

January 10th: Tuesday, Hiltonia General Membership Meeting at 7:00 PM;
New officers begin their terms; Location TBA on our website

Books Ahoy! By Pat Flores

Donna's Little Free Library is bursting at the seams. She is very pregnant right now, and will give birth in a couple of weeks to a smaller version of herself that will house and circulate a children's collection.

This exciting development came about through the kindness of the library steward on Stuyvesant Avenue, who donated her library with the intent that it be redesigned for children. The library was a memorial to her daughter Annabel and was originally named Bell's Book Nook. There has been a need for a children's LFL as evidenced by many requests for more children's content, so it is gratifying that we can convert it to perpetuate the memory of Annabel.

Helen Dudar and Andy Rowan, our midwives, are attending to its development. The site for the cradle is marked by four small stakes. They diligently checked that no water or gas lines were impacted. The main post has been embedded, and we excitedly await the installation of the main library housing. Once the top has been permanently attached, we are ready to stock it with lots of children's books.

THANK YOU Helen and Andy, for your hard work and aesthetic designs. Upon completion of final details, we'll dance around mother and baby, with a glass of bubbly in hand, toasting the fruits of your labors. My extreme gratitude to you both!

Breaking News! Delivery of our newborn on November 29 is a fait accompli! Be sure to bring your children to visit our newborn, and remember, you do not need to leave a book to "take a book." Read, read, read!

Social Activities for Our Neighborhood Kids

Did you know that the Hiltonia Association sponsors events specifically for our neighborhood children? Our two most popular are the Easter Egg Hunt and Halloween Fun. And let's not forget National Night Out in August. It's a great way to meet other kids in the neighborhood.

In an effort to reach out to all of our families with youngsters, we would like to prepare a dedicated email list just for you. When the next event is scheduled, you will receive a notification so that your family will know in advance of an upcoming event. We WILL NOT SHARE this list outside of the neighborhood—it is just for our use.

If you are interested in being part of this "Kids' Activities Email List," please send the following details so you will be in the know of anything we plan for the neighborhood children to:

thehilltone@gmail.com.

- Parents' name/s:
- Your address:
- Names and ages of each child:
- Your phone number (optional, but helpful):

If you are interested in volunteering on the Children's Social Activities Committee and help with events with our chairperson, Dekontee Elliott, please let us know that, as well. Thanks, in advance, for offering your assistance.

A Huge Heartfelt Thank You from “Together from Our Chairs Let No Cupboard Be Bare”

By Lois Krause

Twenty of our Hiltonia neighbors contributed to the September 24 “Together from Our Chairs Let No Cupboard Be Bare” fundraiser. Together along with family and friends, we raised $1,600 to support the Mercer County Meals on Wheels Pet Pantry! 100% of these funds will go to stock the pantry shelves to assist our seniors in providing needed appropriate meals to their beloved furry companions.

Fourteen neighbors participated in the chair yoga class in person at the Hollowbrook Community Center or on Zoom. For most, it was their first experience with chair yoga. The feedback was great and I had requests to do it again!

The mission of “Together from Our Chairs Let No Cupboard Be Bare” is to address hunger and food insecurity while caring for ourselves through the wonderful and accessible practice of chair yoga. There is so much need and there are many organizations with a mission to eliminate hunger. Let me know if you have an organization in mind and would like to work on something together!

Again, thank you to everyone who helped to make this so successful! A special thank you to Sasa Montana, CEO of Mercer County Meals on Wheels, for educating us on the Pet Pantry, Linda Reid for her advice and assistance with flyer delivery, Kathi Eckert for always answering my questions, and Susan Samonski and June Guerrero for their never ending pet-loving support!

I look forward to more classes and doing what we can through “Together from Our Chairs Let No Cupboard Be Bare”!

Hiltonia Reflections

By Pat Flores (reprinted from a 1986 Hilltone)

Halloween Heaven...that’s what Halloween turned into on the night of October 31, according to Peter Stern of Renfrew, who turned his mental clock back to the late fifties to conjure up visions of trick or treating here in the “good old days”.

The neighborhood was different then, more isolated from the rest of the city, and with considerably fewer houses. Carloads of Trenton kids would be driven to Hiltonia and dropped off on the street corners to cover the territory and amass what fortunes they could in candy and other goodies.

Every ghost and goblin would head first for the home of Mr. and Mrs. Schragger on Hilvista Boulevard. Peter recalled that they had three aluminum tables set up in their driveway, forming a U-shape and laden with huge glass bowls of candy, along with bowls of shiny pennies and nickels—and you could take some of EACH. The Schraggers started the tradition when their own children were trick or treating, and loved to see the kids come through in costume.

Steve Schragger, Charles’ son, now lives in the family homestead. I called him to ask a few details and he told me his parents continued this ritual until the early sixties. At some point, it seemed to them that avarice had taken over, and they discontinued Halloween altogether.

....to Lois Krause, Maureen & Jacques Lebel, Pat Flores, Linda Reid, Lily Knezevich, Carole Minotti, Pat Rodeawald, Becky Taylor, Jordan Antebi, Lori Emmerson and Terri O’Prey, who provided content for this issue!

....and to our EXTREMELY AWESOME proofreaders, Terri O’Prey and Margaret Mason. This publication would not happen without all of your input!

Hiltonia Book Club: Fall 2022, by Terri O'Prey

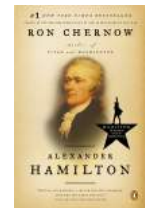

Hiltonia readers are on a roll, with frequent fall events:

In September we convened at Margaret Mason's house to share our thoughts on Della Owens's Where the Crawdads Sing. While feasting on southern-style food, we debated the plausibility of the plot and speculated about the author's own legal troubles related to an unsolved murder. What an exciting way to regroup after summer!

In October we took a road trip to the shore to discuss Anthony Doerr's critically acclaimed Cloud Cuckoo Land. This book selection was meaningful because Doerr's All the Light We Cannot See launched the club. This tome offered paltry menu inspiration, so our feast had little to do with the tale but satisfied nonetheless. Reviews of the book were mixed, with most readers landing hard on the edges of "loved" or "not for me." Meeting in a new setting was a treat, and we enjoyed ourselves even when we ran out of meaningful insights to share about the book. One of my favorite aspects of this group is that we have fun even when we don't land on the same page. I loved the book more than anything else I read this year, and I actually enjoyed hearing what didn't sit well with other readers.

In November readers gathered for a multipart look at Alexander Hamilton. The fun began with a Friday afternoon viewing of Lin-Manuel Miranda's Broadway musical as warmup for a Sunday discussion of Ron Chernow's biography, presented by fearless book club leader Maris Williams. I was so sorry to be out of town and miss these events. Hamilton is one of my favorite musicals!

We hope to continue varied meetings in 2023, with a mix of shared readings and get-togethers about meaningful books among readers. New members are always welcome, so please contact Maris Williams (maris.w@comcast.net) if you'd like to join the fun.

Email Distribution & Opting-Out of the Printed Newsletter

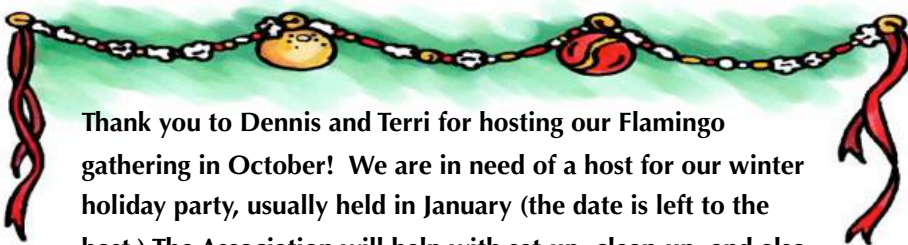

We are always trying to improve communication within the neighborhood, so we have created an Association email distribution list. If you are currently not receiving any neighborhood news via email, and you would like to, please send your email to the editor at thehilltone@gmail.com and you will be added to the newsletter list.

We will no longer be offering the "OPT-OUT" choice for delivery of the printed newsletter. Since we are changing our publication schedule, our Foot Patrol will deliver ONLY the December printed issue to every home in the neighborhood. The remaining three (3) issues will be digital (so make sure we have your email). If this will cause a hardship, please let the editor know at the above email address. There was a very low number of households who had opted-out, and it is not practical for us to continue to maintain those records.

This 'n That . . .

- We will be in need of speakers for our general meetings. If you have any suggestions, or if there is someone from whom you want to hear, please contact Jeannie or Linda to suggest someone.
- Have you signed up for our "News Only" email list? We promise not to deluge you with annoying emails. But we will push out event flyers, The Hilltone, and any news that your officers need you to know. To sign up, please email hiltonia.association.president@gmail.com . (And we promise to not share the email distribution list with anyone!!)
- The Hiltonia Association's website is: www.hiltoniaassociation.org; we have an Association calendar of events on the website. You can also install a Google app for the calendar on your phone. Our newsletters are archived there.
- If you hire a lawn service, please make sure your service knows it's responsible for hauling away any leaves or debris collected outside of city pickup dates. Otherwise, you, as the resident, are responsible for bagging it all or transferring it to your trash cans. It CANNOT be left loose in the gutters before the defined collection dates.
- We could REALLY USE YOUR HELP with articles and stories of interest from YOU—our neighbors. Perhaps an interesting story about a family trip, your kids' recent achievements, special anniversaries, the history of your house, and the list goes on. Please send them to thehilltone@gmail.com .
- BURNING DEBRIS IN YARDS IS STRICTLY PROHIBITED

Thank you to Dennis and Terri for hosting our Flamingo gathering in October! We are in need of a host for our winter holiday party, usually held in January (the date is left to the host.) The Association will help with set-up, clean-up, and also provide the beverages and desserts. Guests bring an entree or appetizer. It is open to ALL adult residents of Hiltonia.

We would like to continue the tradition of sponsoring our holiday and Flamingo parties. It's such a great way to meet your neighbors. Won't you consider being our next host? If you would like to host, please contact Lori Emmerson at lorimarkemmerson@gmail.com.
